

Burrumbeep News – March 2014

GREETINGS!

WITH the ski season only a few months away, it is time to bring you all up to speed on a few key dates and some other important information relating to your Burrumbeep membership.

While winter 2013 did not deliver as promised on the snow front, we are happy to report that the club remains in a strong financial position and is in pretty good physical shape heading into winter.

Given the short lead time between this newsletter and the Annual General Meeting, we will keep this update pretty brief and you can stay tuned for the next edition which will be distributed ahead of opening weekend in June.

We hope you enjoy this edition of Burrumbeep News.

AGM

All members are encouraged to attend this year's Annual General Meeting. In addition to a rundown of the committee's activities over the past 12 months, this is an opportunity for members to lock in some early bookings in before bookings are opened to guests a fortnight later. During that two-week window, members will be able to book beds for themselves and one guest.

Venue: Glenferrie Hotel,

Maintenance

A small but productive work party mid February saw plenty of tidying up around the lodge, particularly in the bedrooms, where architraves and skirts were refitted. Externally, a lick of paint around the entrance, on the barge boards and the woodshed has also made a difference to the look of the place.

Other jobs presently underway include the replacement of the fireplace flue, with the old one removed and a new one hopefully to be installed before Easter. Exhaust flues for the cooktops are also in line for some pre-season attention as are the boilers. All laundry has been taken off the mountain for cleaning and the committee has committed to replacing all items showing signs of wear. Overall, the club is looking good but there is always more to be done and we'd love to see some new faces at the upcoming work party.

and bushwalking, it's a great time to be up the mountain.

If you are able to attend, register by calling Courtney Pern on 9571 6571/0409 184 439 or emailing pern@bigfoot.com.au

Maintenance levy

We would like to remind all members who have not participated in a work party that their 2014 maintenance levy of $250 will be due following the next work party on the Labour Day long weekend (March 8-9).

Taking part in a work party is a great way to both avoid this expense and help the club save money on employing external contractors.
